

Newsletter: Term 2, Week 9: 27th June 2019

“Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality”

Warren Bennis

Kia Ora Everyone,

We are delighted to announce our newly appointed Board of Trustees; Greg Hartwell, Rachael Dennis, Joshua Gwilliam, Katharina Friedli, and Hanna Woods. Congratulations!

I take my hat off to all parent and community candidates who put their names forward to be a Board member and acknowledge that it's a tough ask for people to put themselves out there. We were incredibly lucky to have such top quality people to choose from, so thank you to them for accepting the nomination to be a BOT member.

I'm sure we will maximise the opportunity to work collegially to ensure that our amazing school is well governed for another three-year term.

School Volunteers Needed

We are in desperate need for additional adult support around the school. Someone to take charge of our Resource Rooms, School Library, Garden Maintenance, reading with students, maybe even helping to prepare a hot lunch once a week. Our staff are already working at full capacity! So please if you are available, even one day a week, any time would be much appreciated.

As next week is the end of term, and we have a lot going on, we will be sending out another short newsletter next week.

NOVA'S MONKEY BARS OPENING

We have a special ceremony after our Friday assembly tomorrow morning (9:05am) to officially open Nova's yellow monkey bars. Come and join the Evans family and friends to celebrate this new addition to our playground, kindly donated with money raised from the Nova "disco" and "breakfast" held in recent times.

Raffle tickets are still available at the office or from a Room 1 student, one of the amazing hampers could be yours, $2 per ticket or $5 for 3. Thanks for supporting Room 1's camp fundraising! (Raffle will be drawn on the last day of term).

Tomorrow's School Lunch = Sausage Sizzle and an Iceblock $4
